

OpenSource 101

Victor Varza | Sr. Cloud Software Engineer

Agenda

What is Open Source?

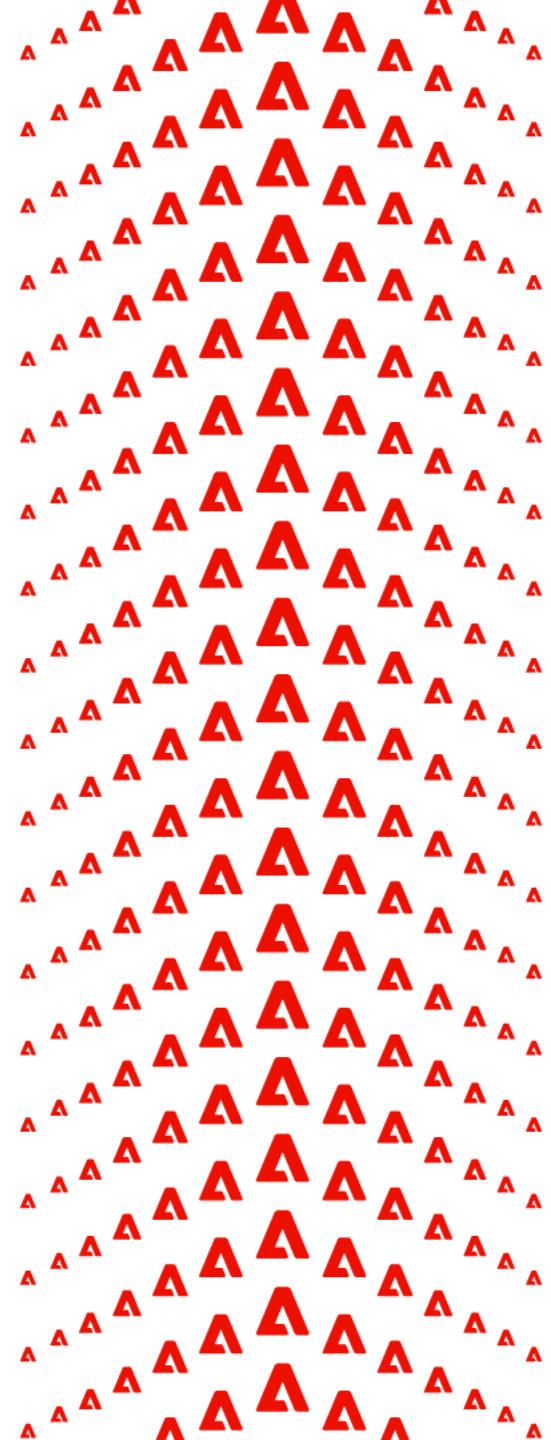

Principles

Downsides

Advantages

Monetizing an Open Source project

Successful projects

What is Open Source?

What is Open Source?

Jamila's tart

500 g puff pastry with butter

100 g powdered sugar

400 g cream cheese

1 teaspoon vanilla extract

50 g of currants

What is Open Source?

What is Open Source?

What is Open Source?

Jamila's tart

500 g puff pastry with butter

100 g powdered sugar

400 g cream cheese

1 teaspoon vanilla extract

50 g of currants

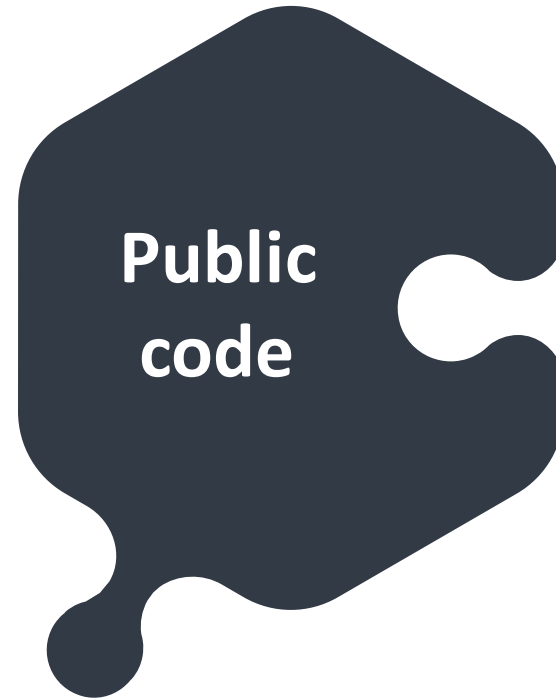

What is Open Source?

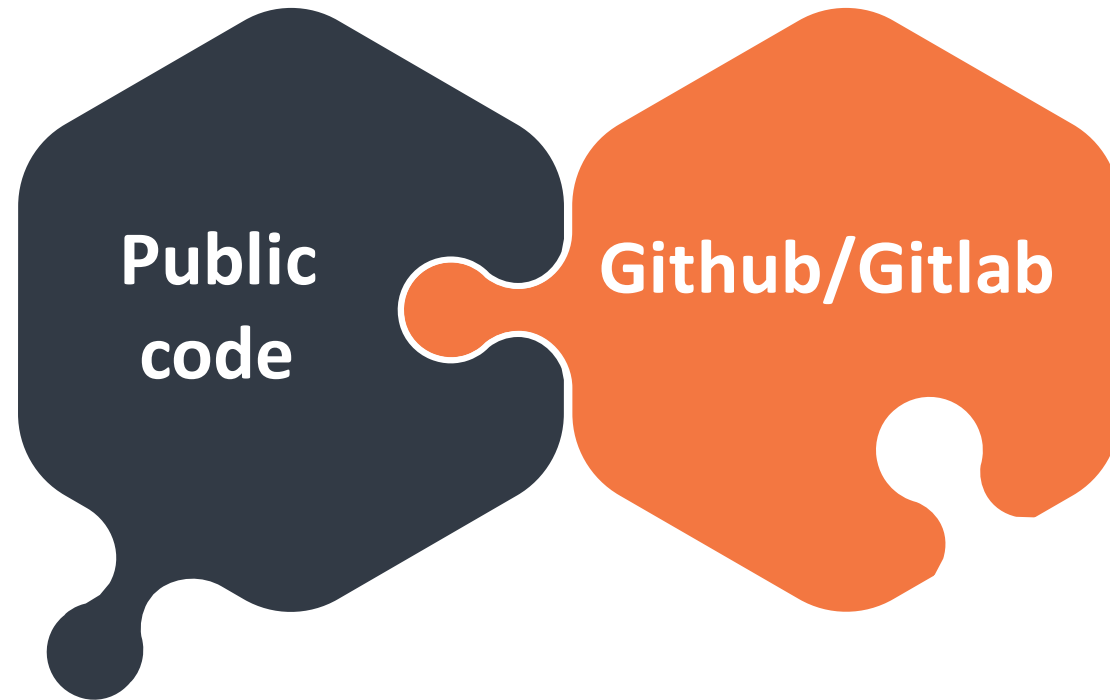

What is Open Source?

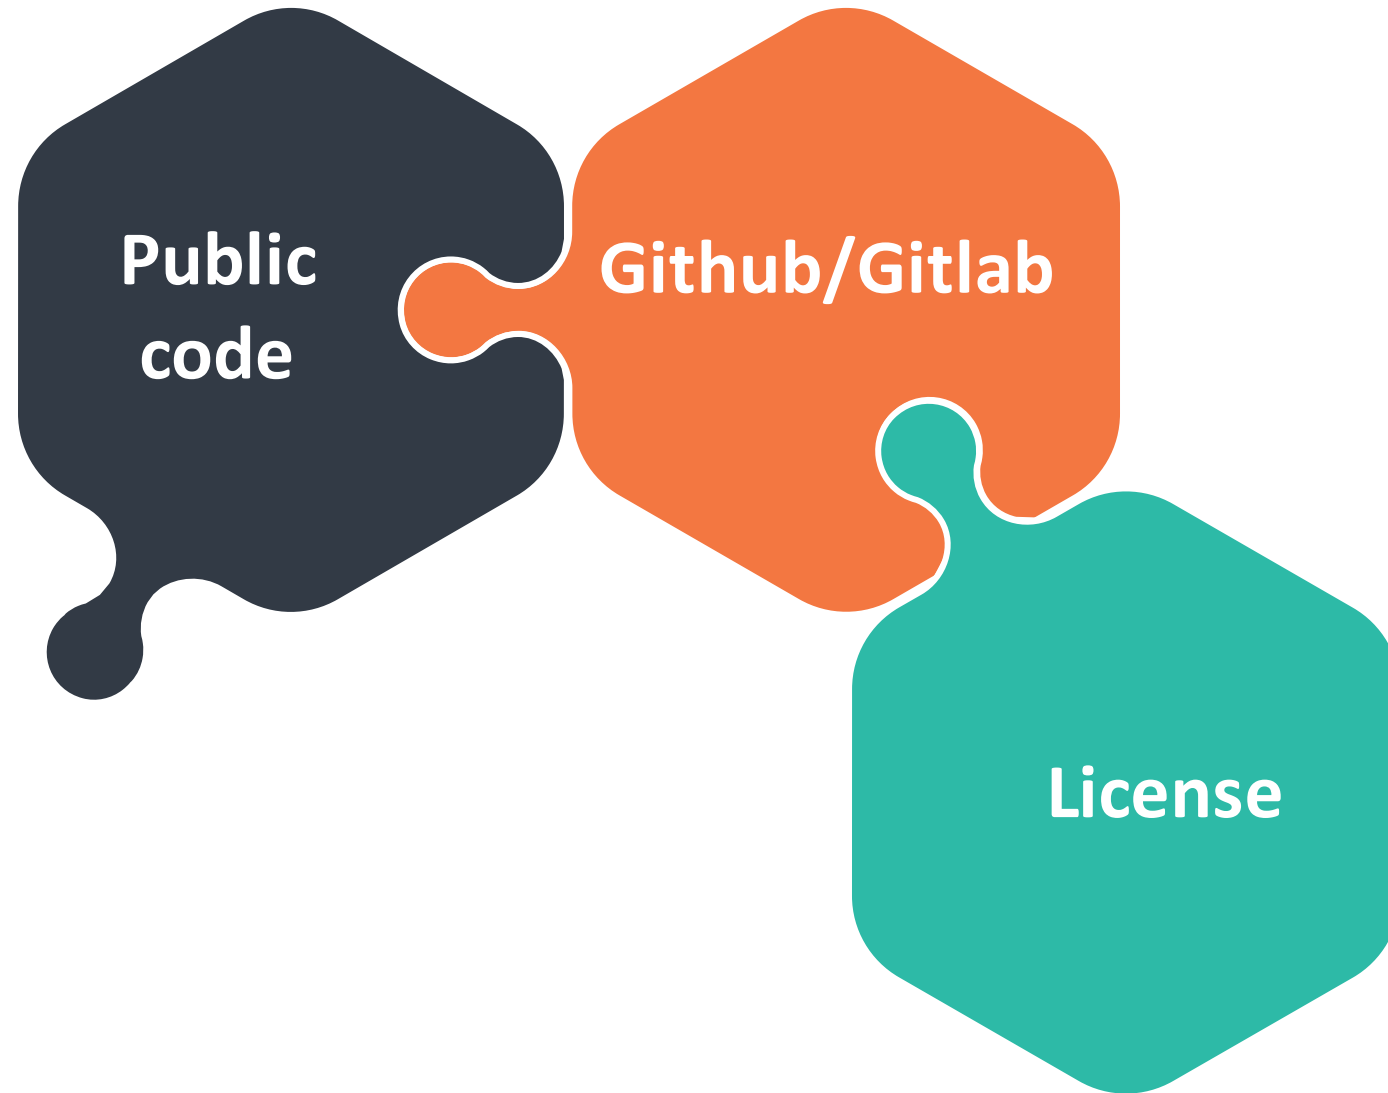

What is Open Source?

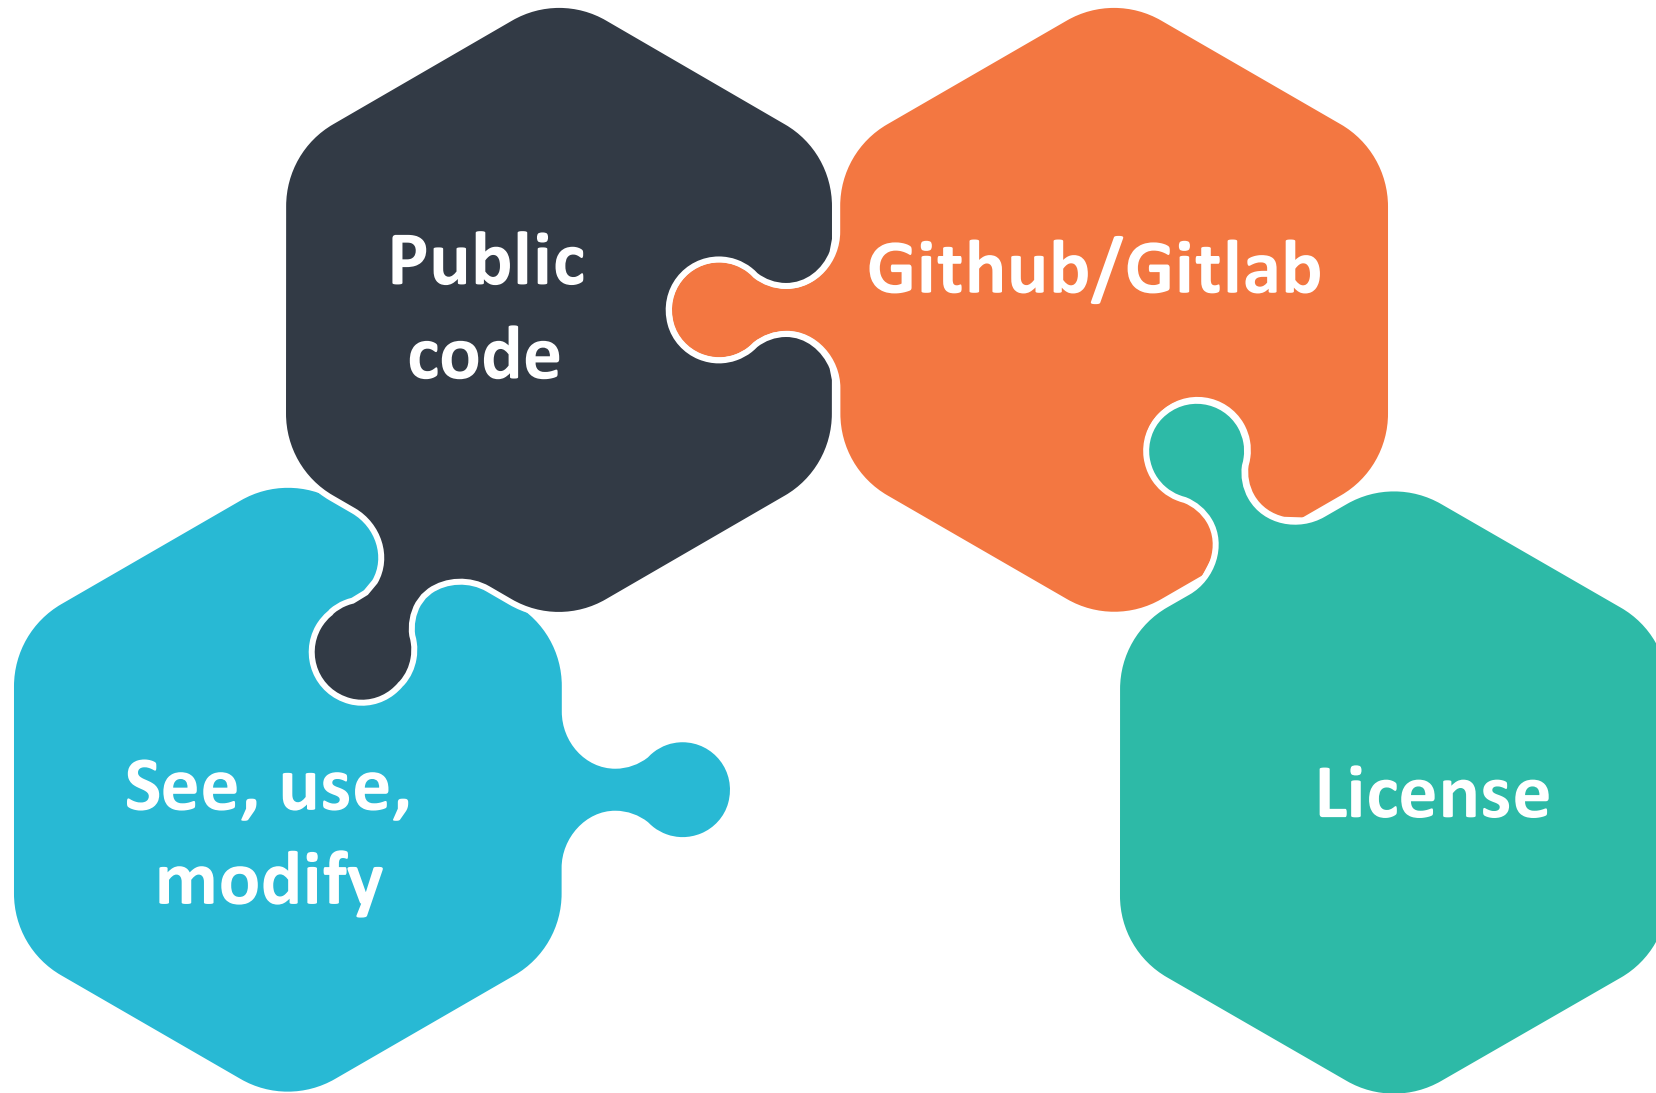

What is Open Source?

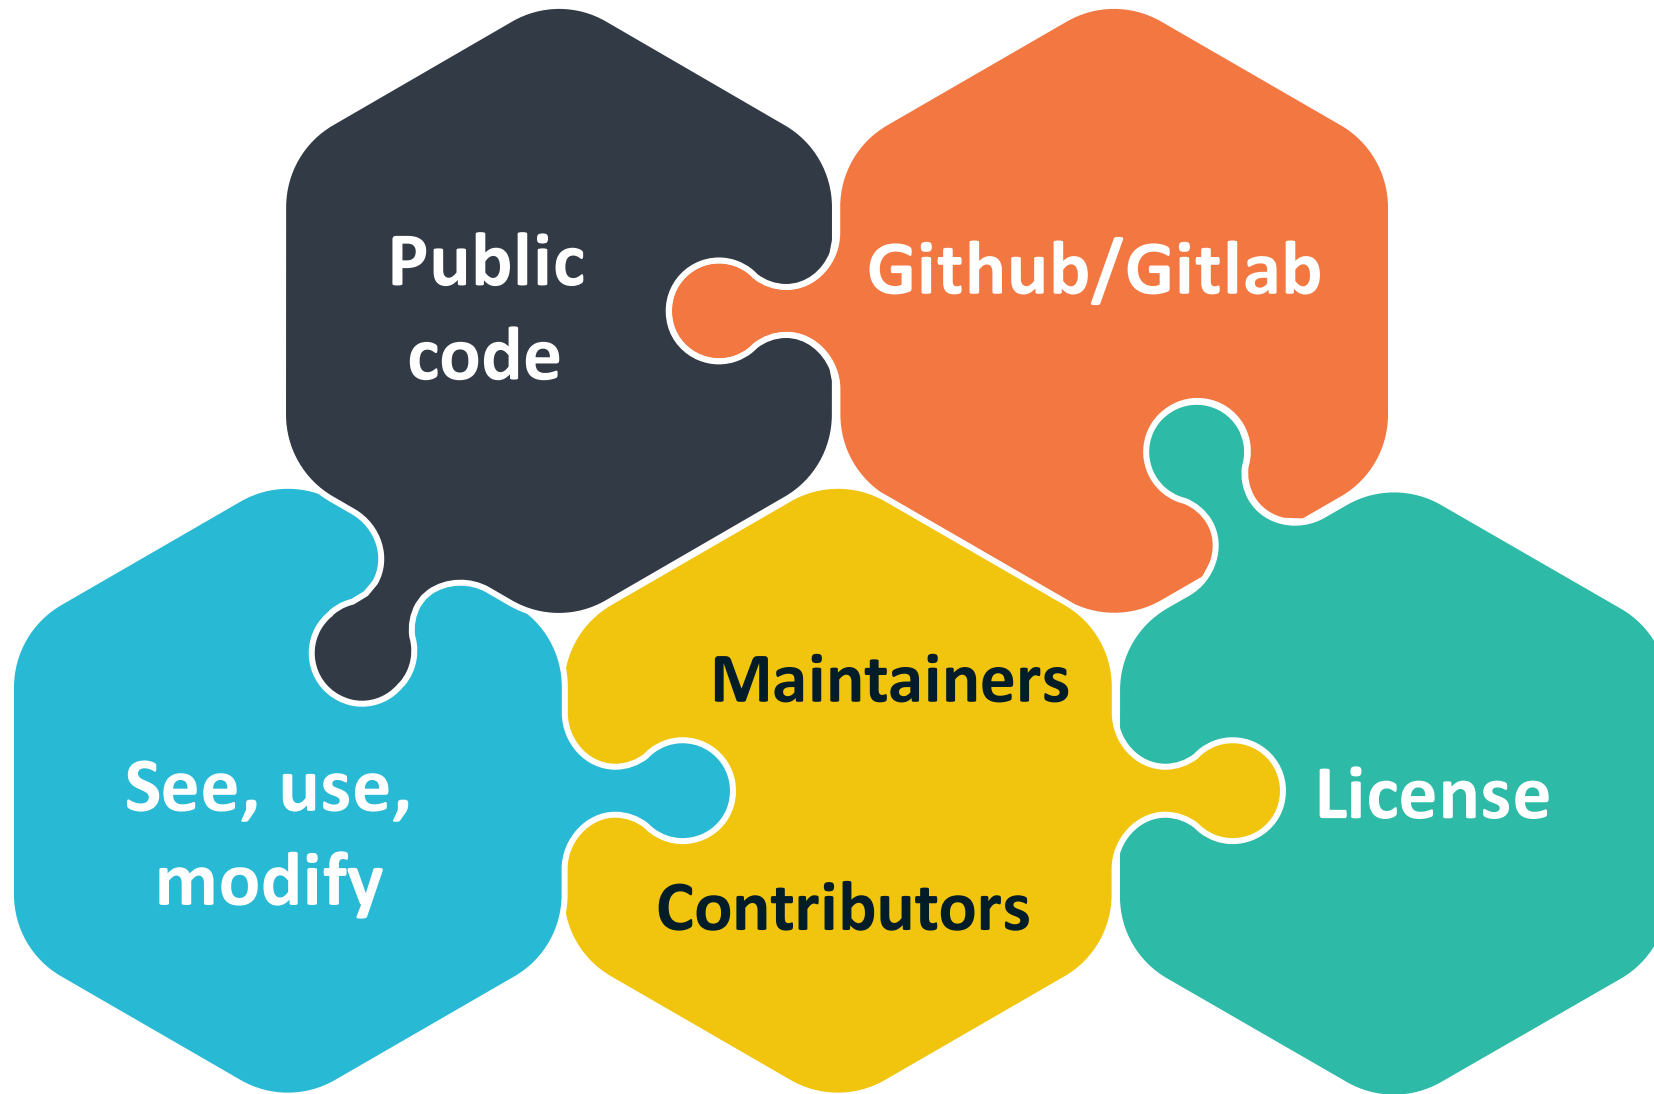

What is Open Source?

What is Open Source?

What is Open Source?

History

1950s

IBM allowed customers to access and modify the source code of their software products

History

1950s

IBM allowed customers to access and modify the source code of their software products

1980s

Richard Stallman founded the Free Software Foundation

History

1950s

IBM allowed customers to access and modify the source code of their software products

1980s

Richard Stallman founded the Free Software Foundation

1990s

Linus Torvalds released Linux Operating System

History

1950s

IBM allowed customers to access and modify the source code of their software products

1980s

Richard Stallman founded the Free Software Foundation

1990s

Linus Torvalds released Linux Operating System

2008

Github was released

Principles

Principles

Transparency

Principles

Transparency

Access

Principles

Transparency

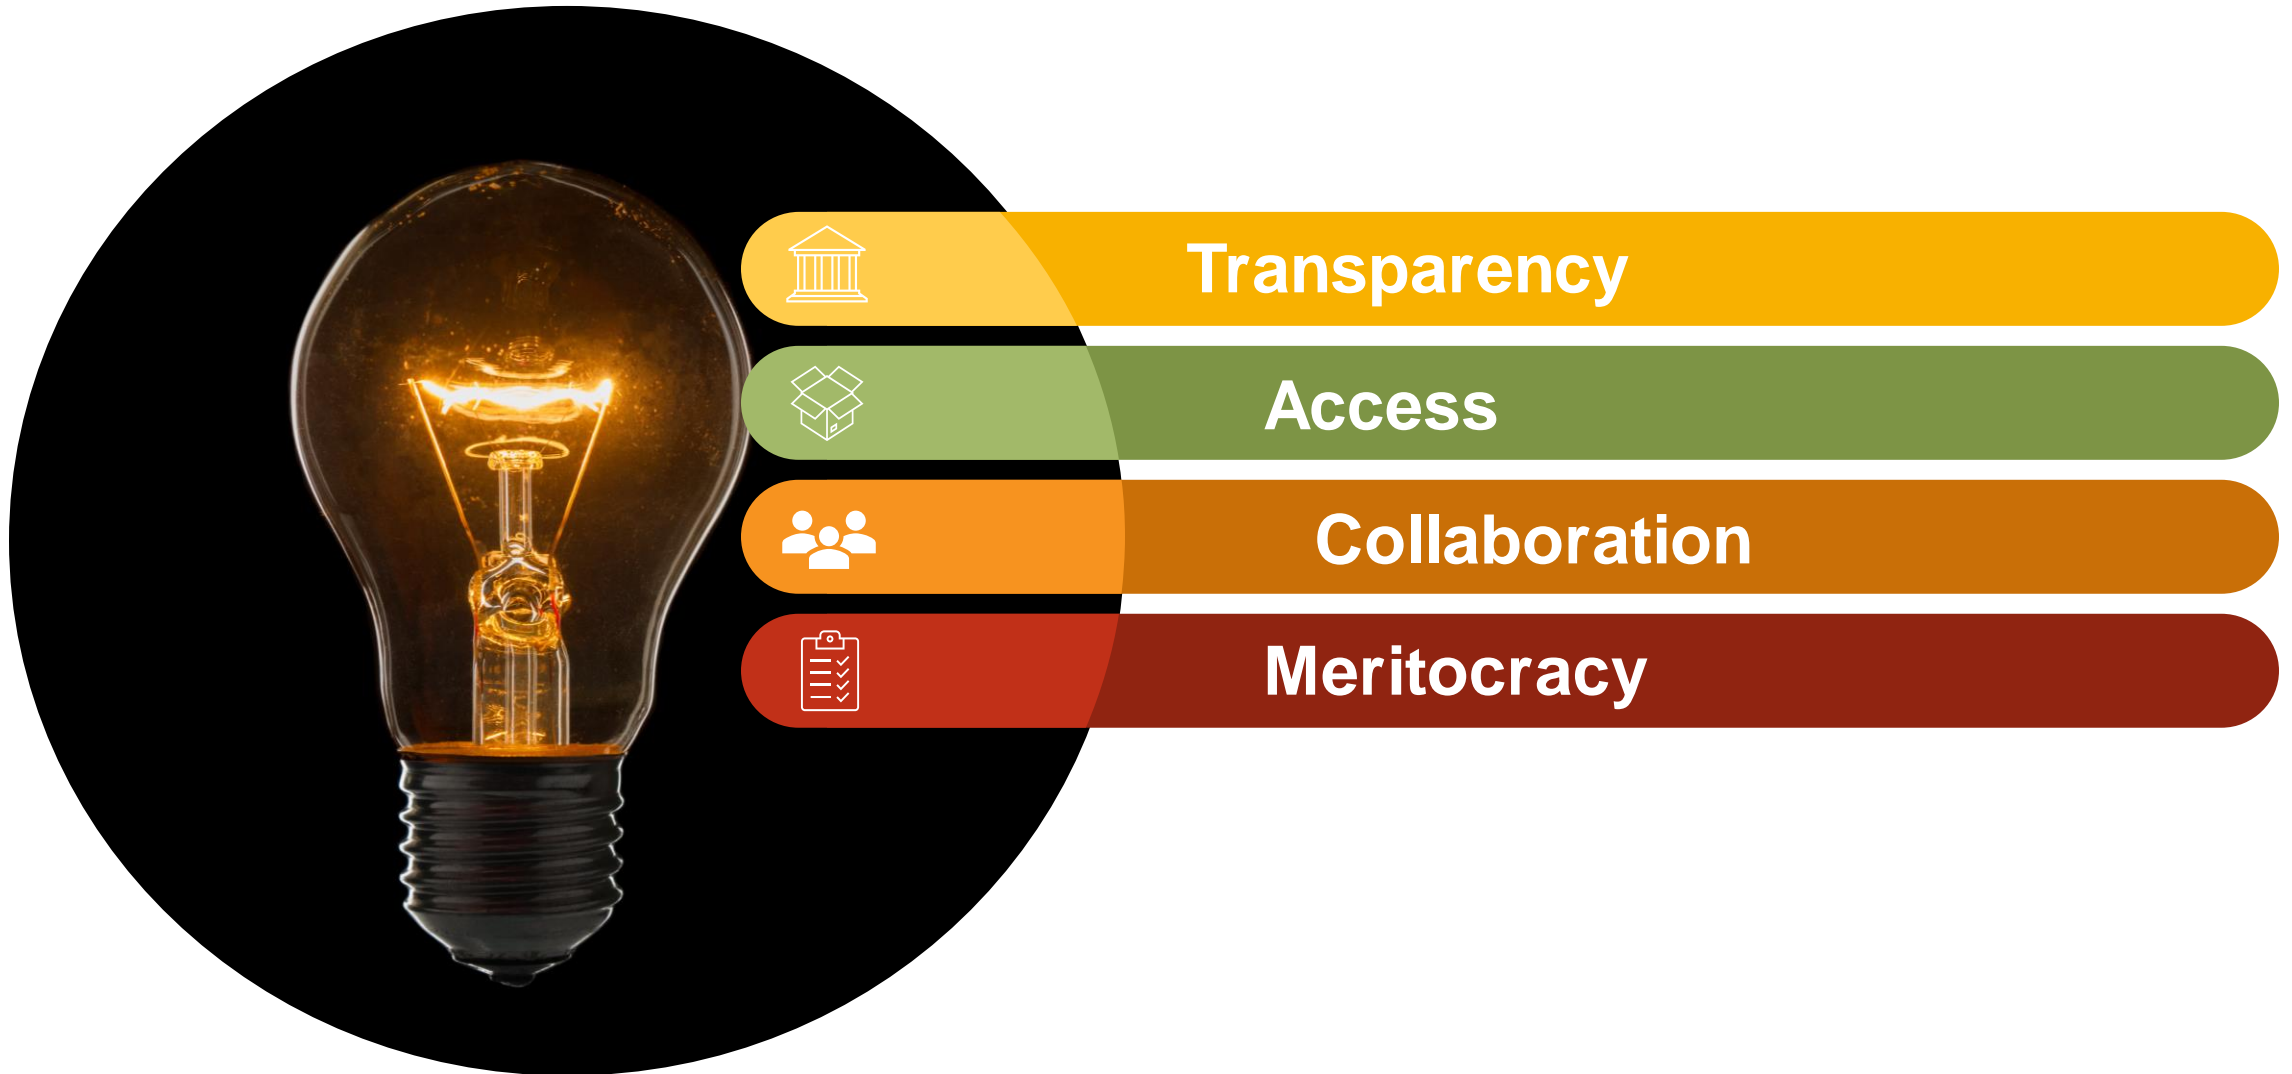

Access

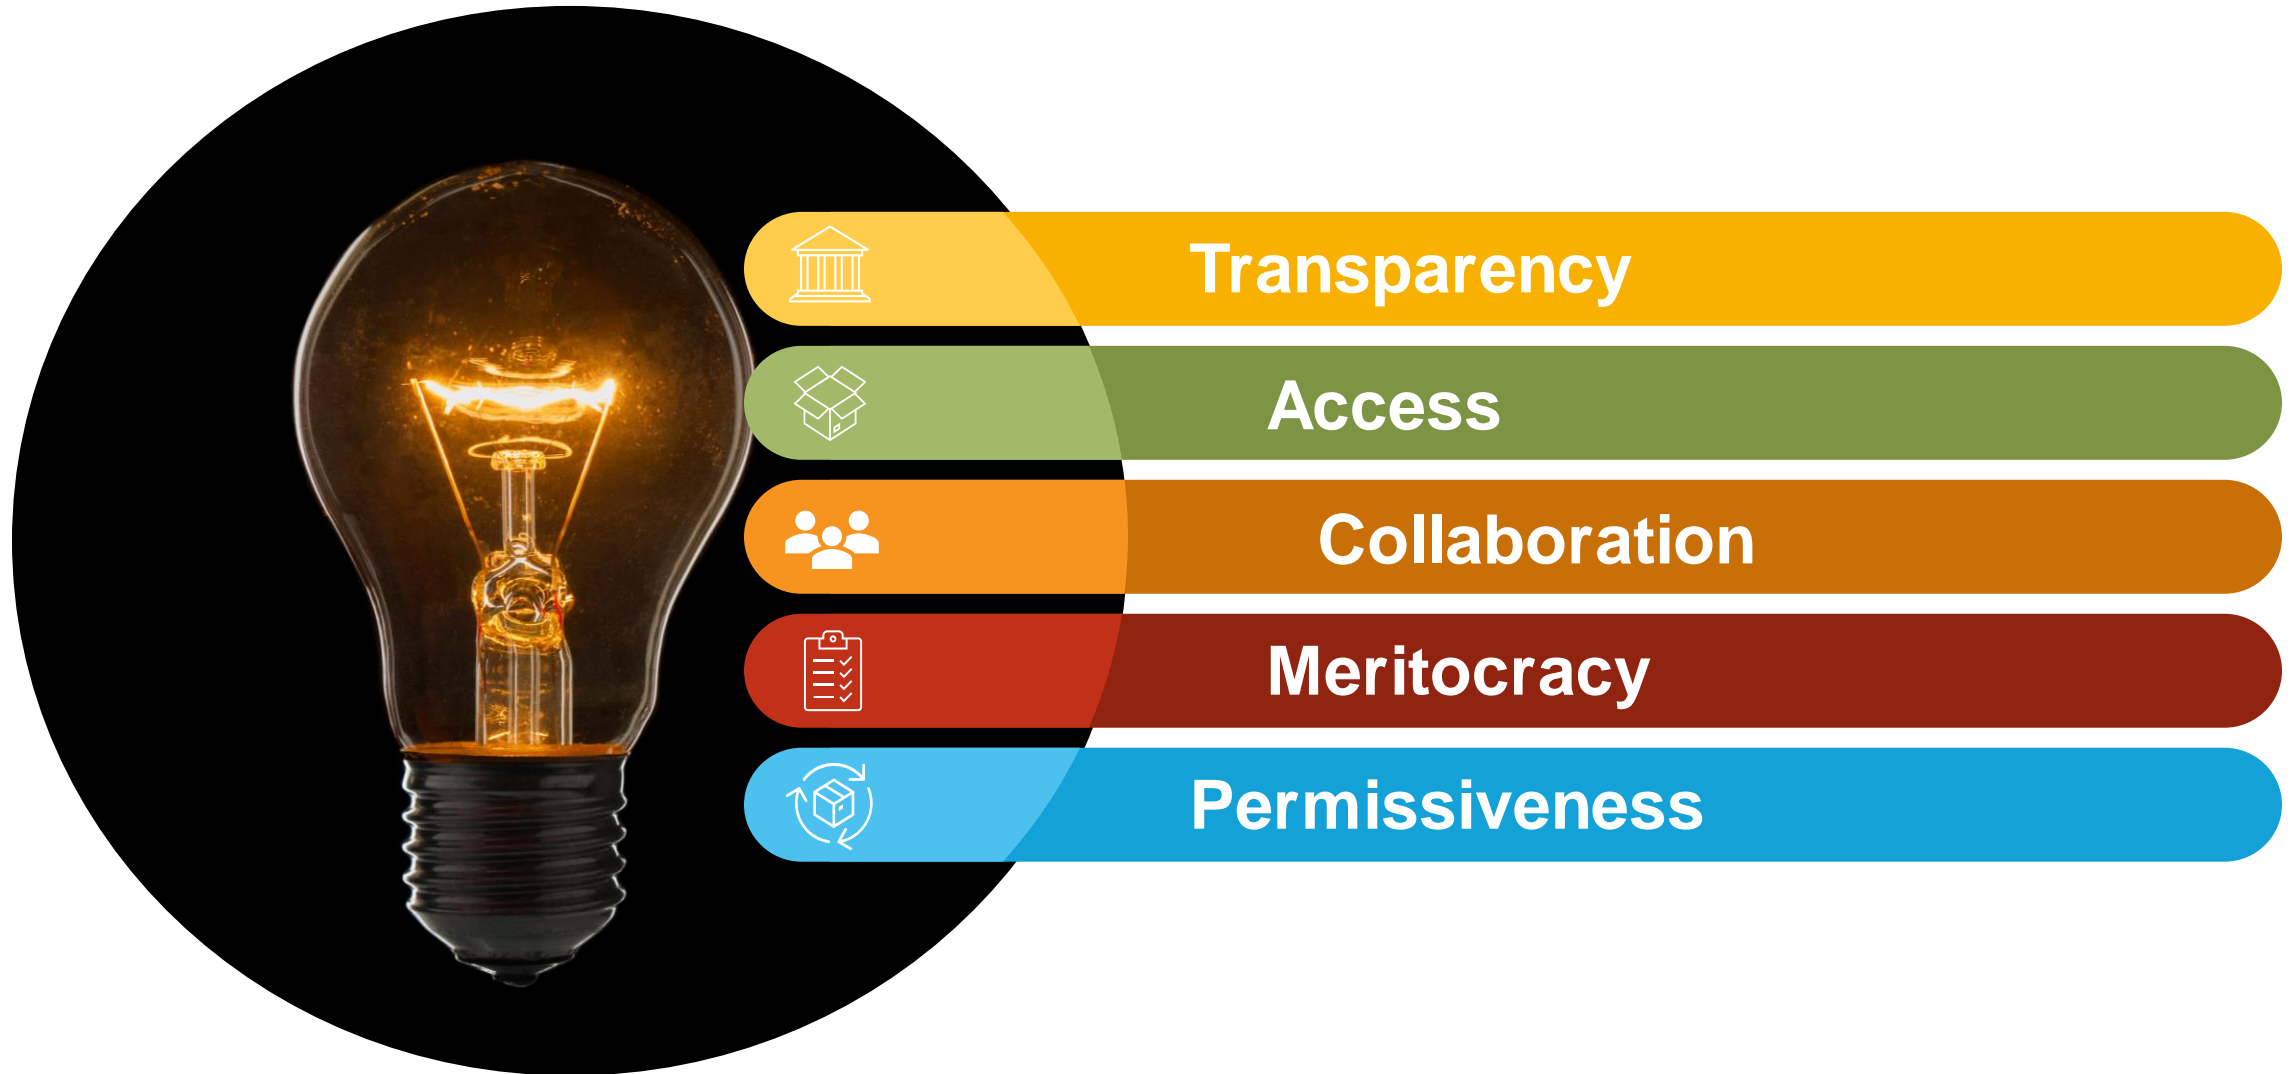

Collaboration

Principles

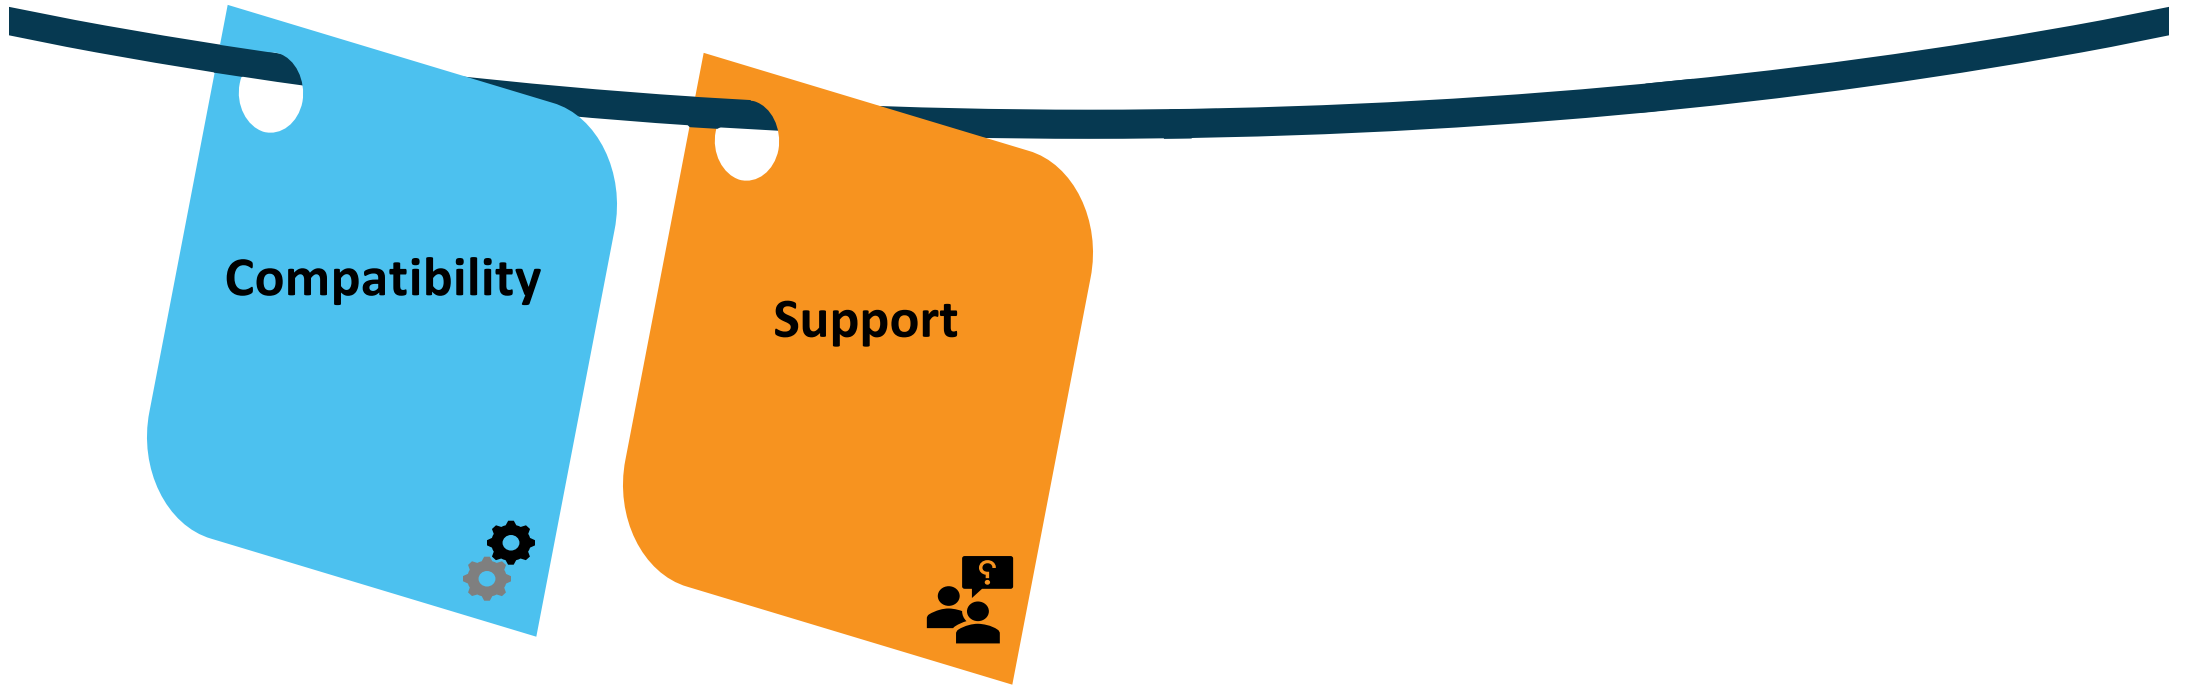

Principles

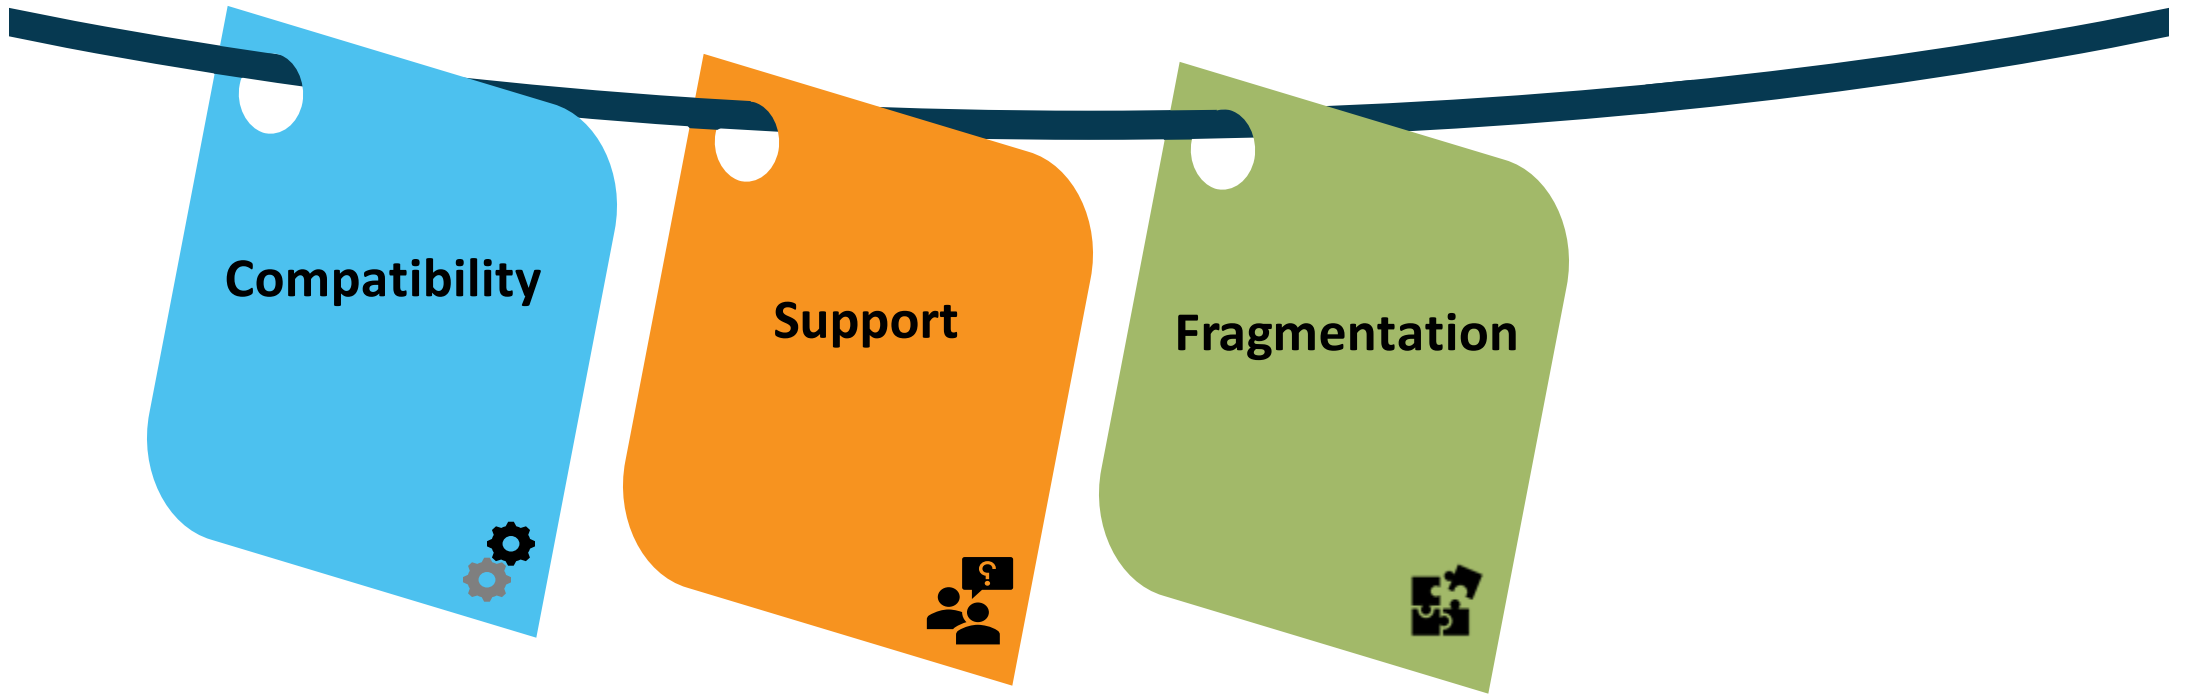

Downsides

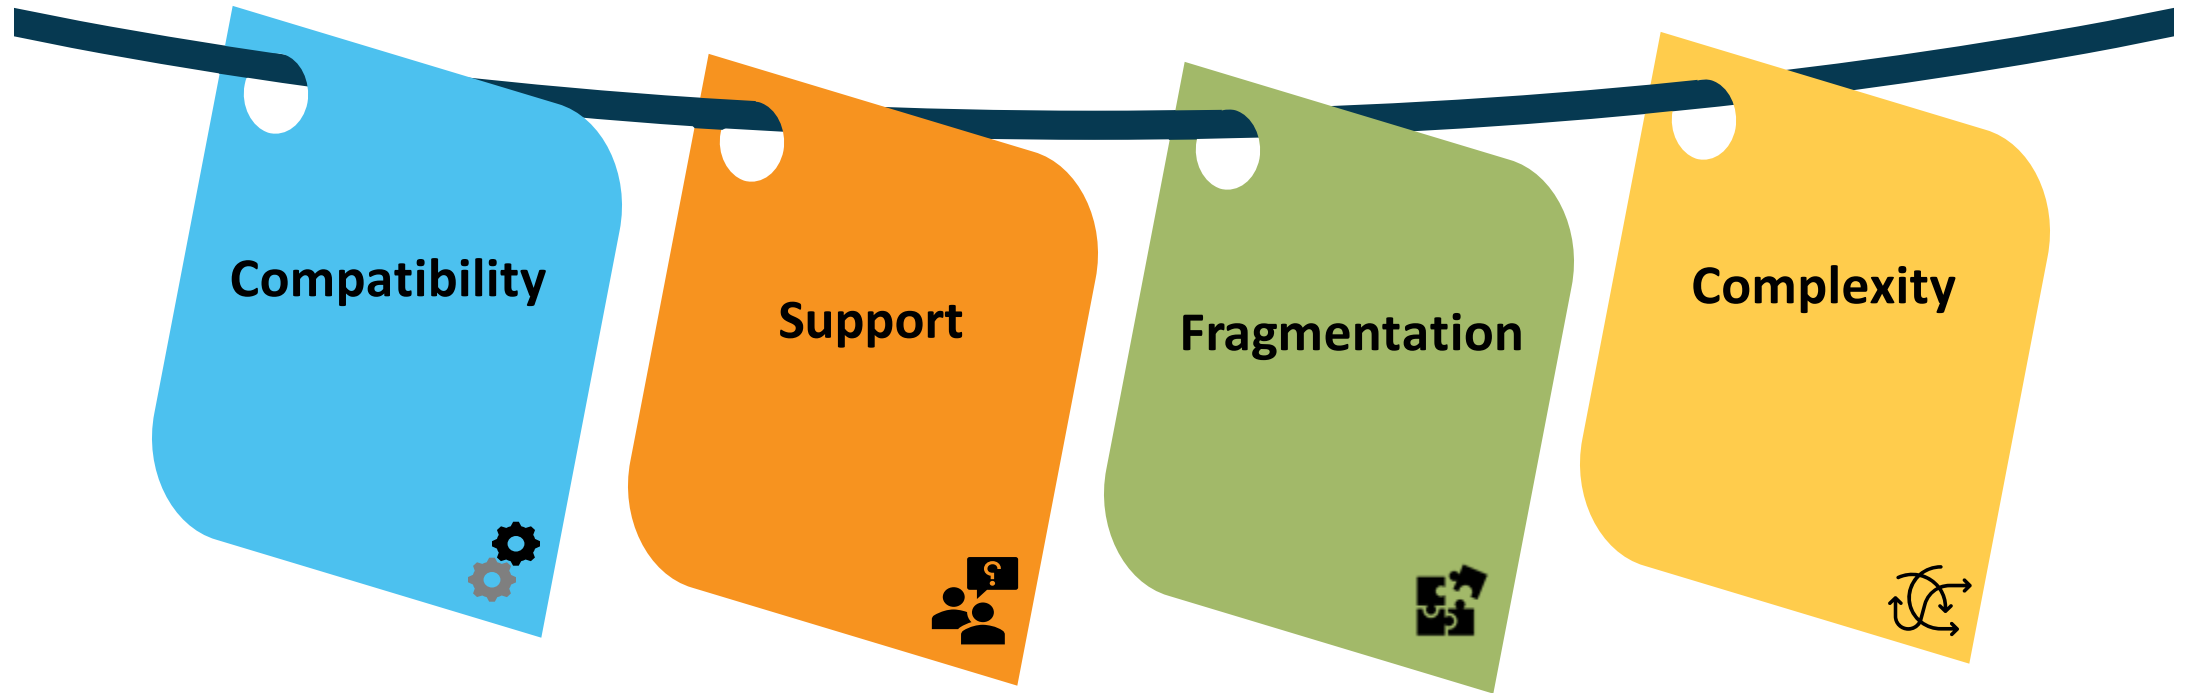

Downsides

Downsides

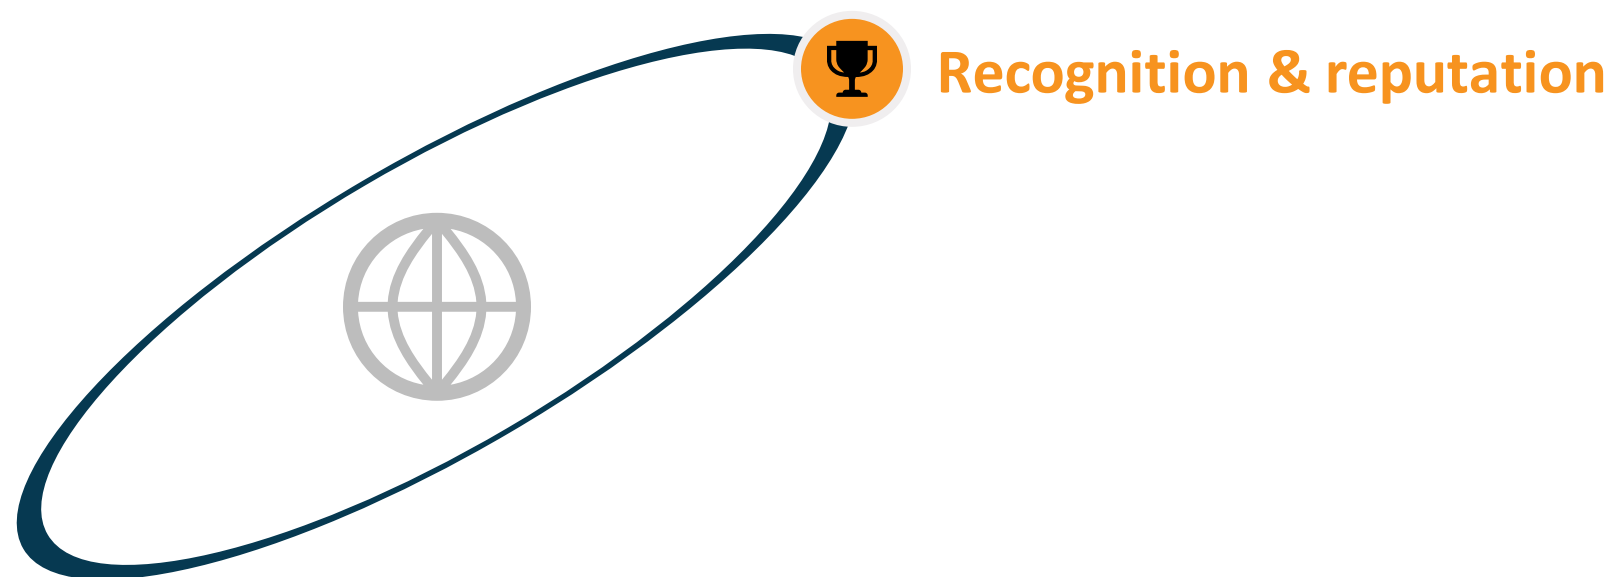

Downsides

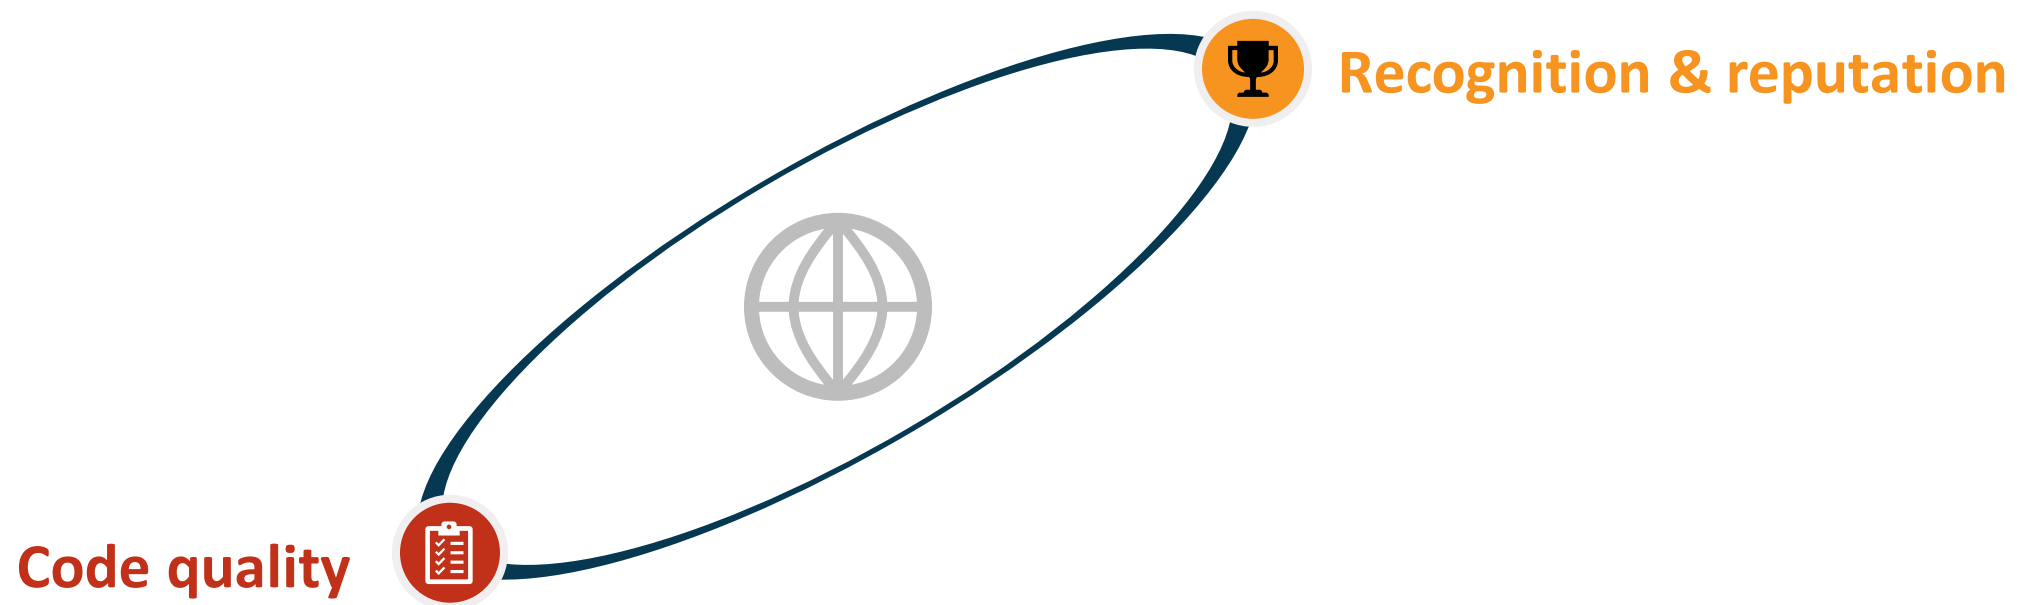

Advantages

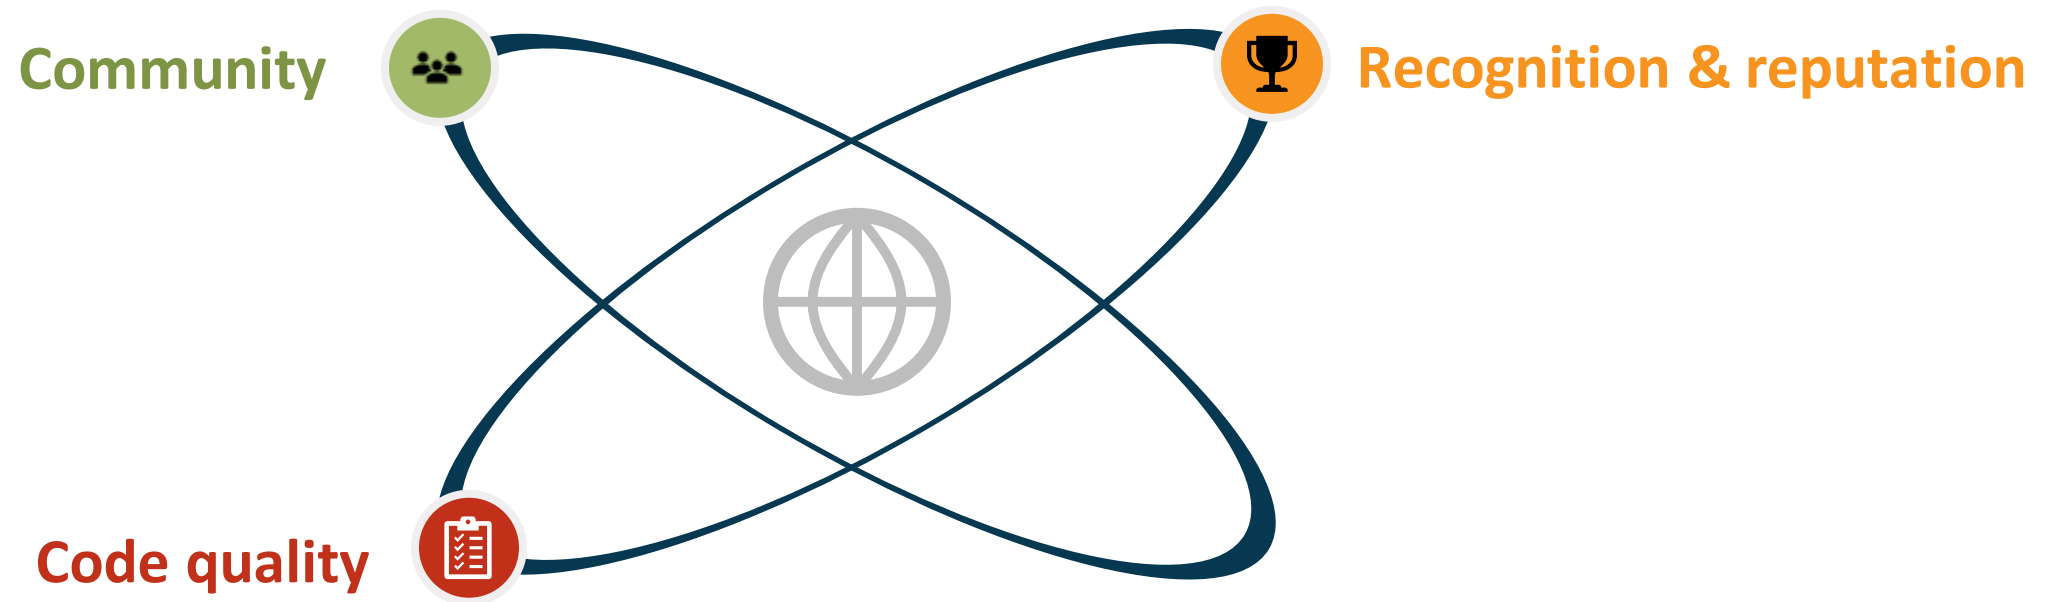

Advantages

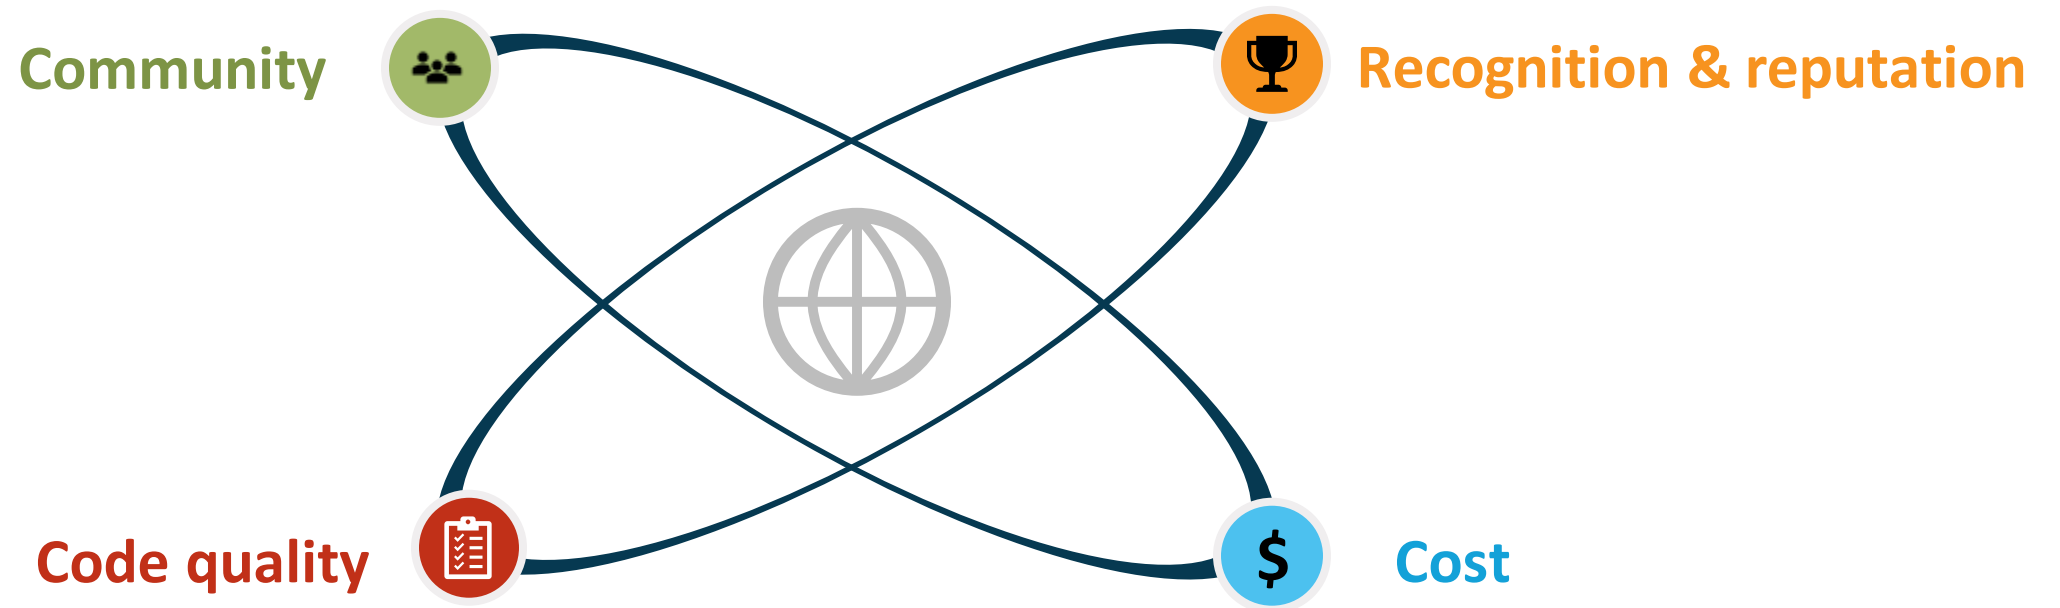

Advantages

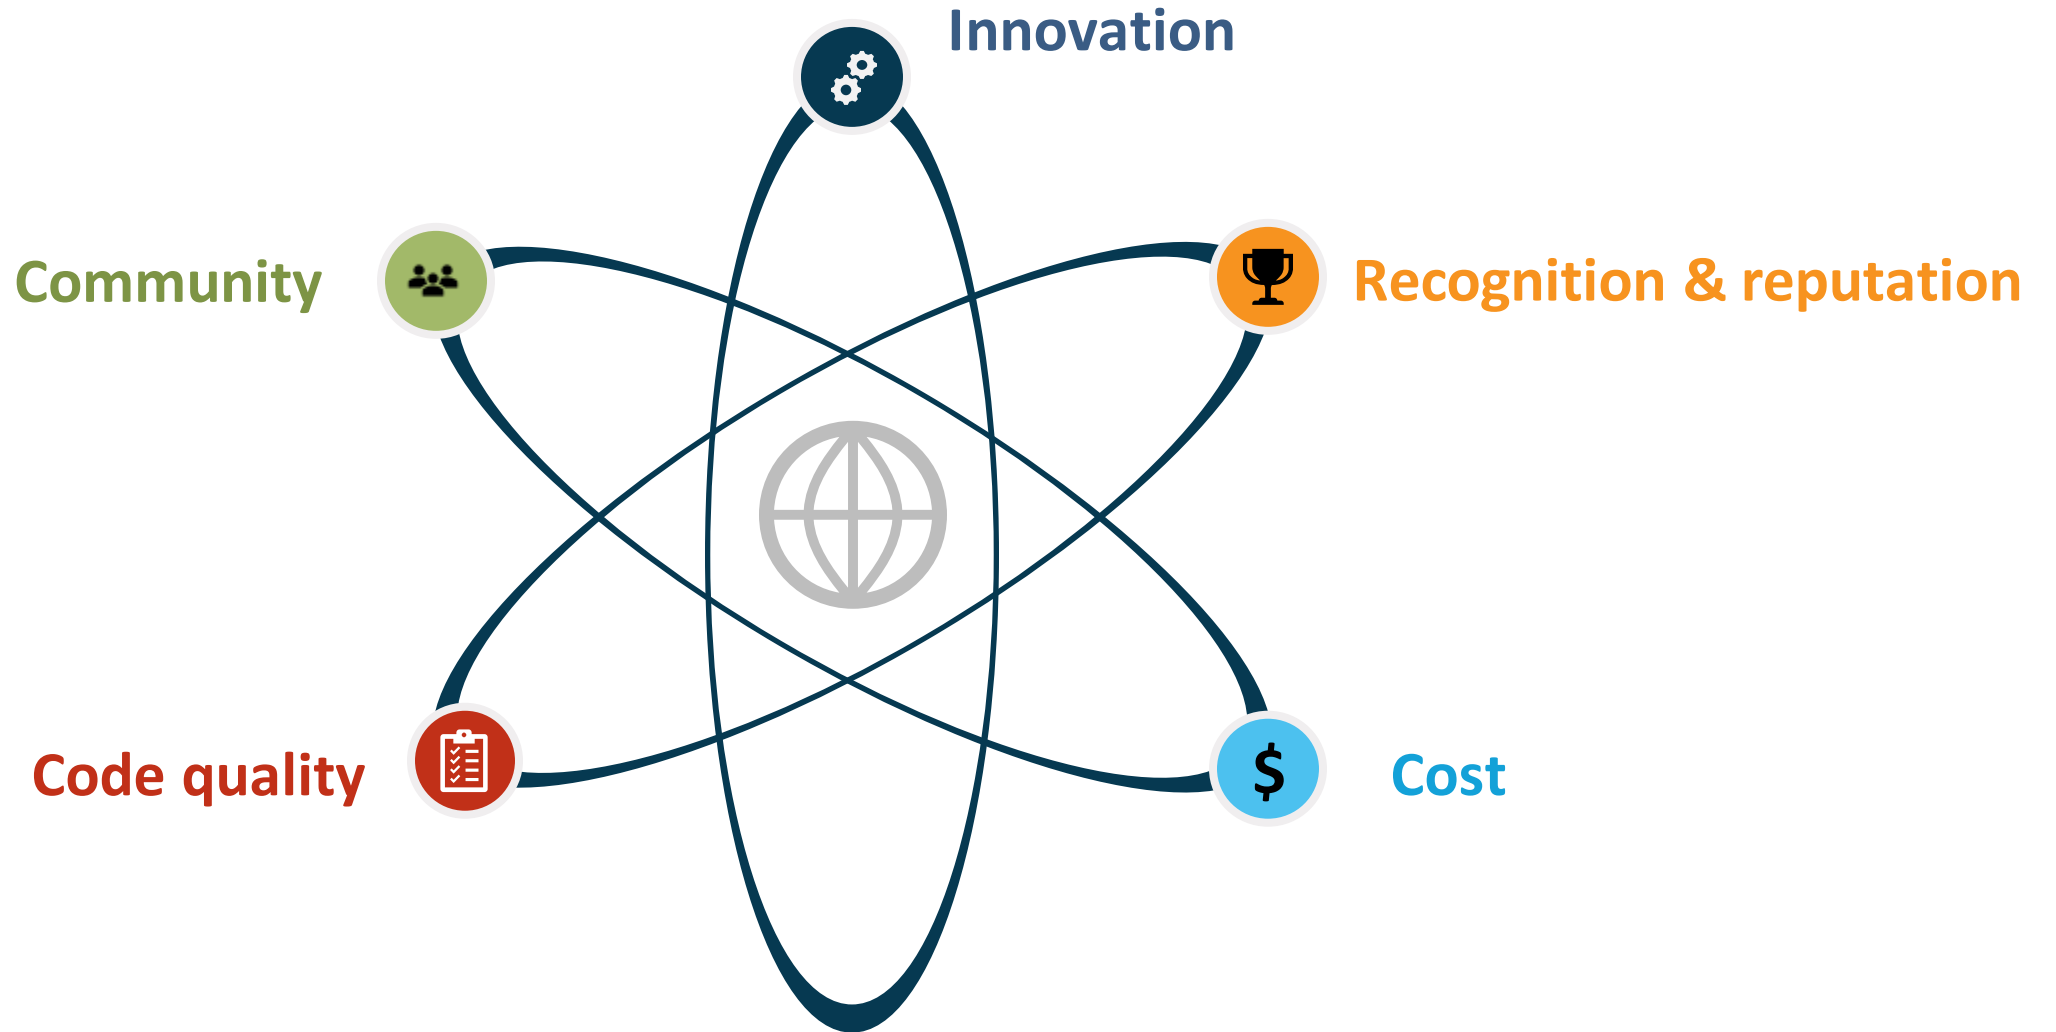

Advantages

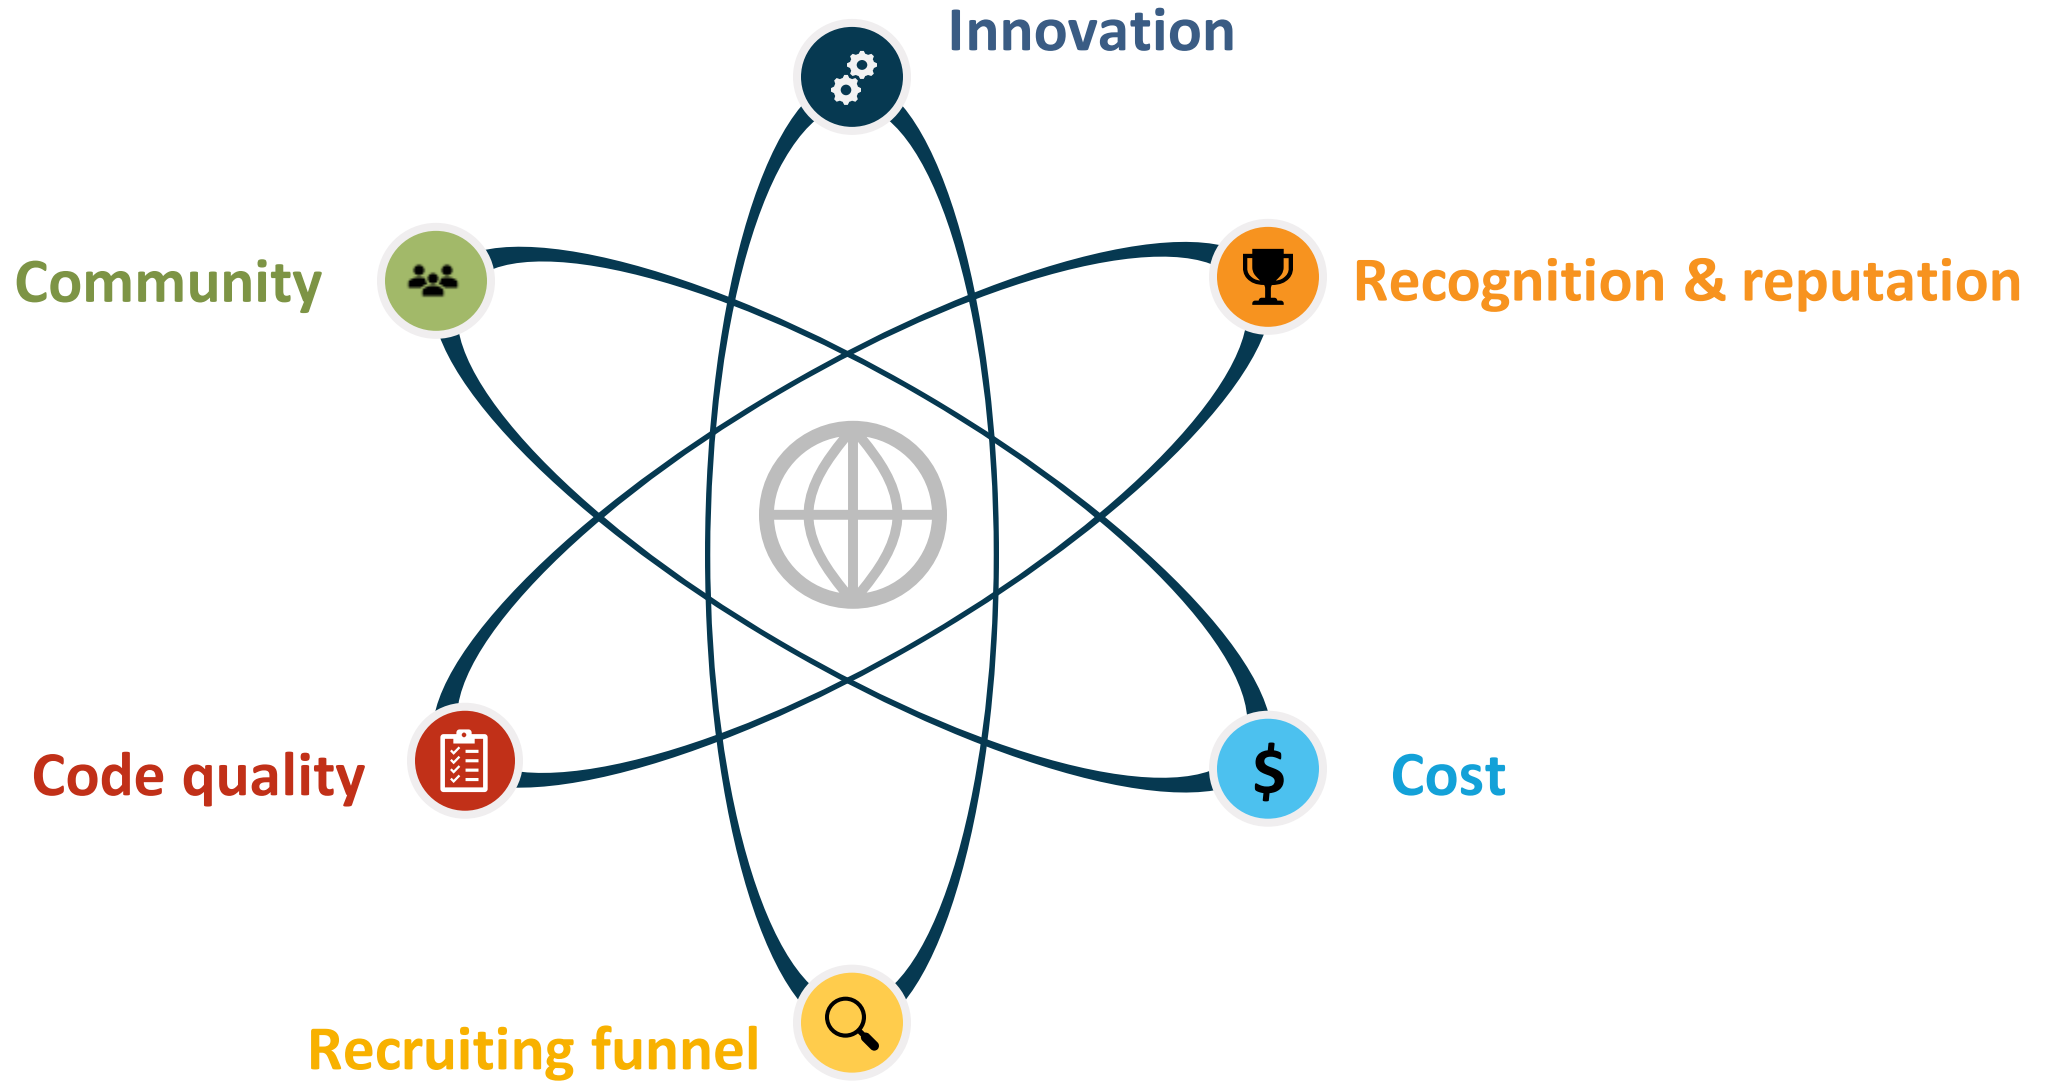

Advantages

Advantages

Advantages

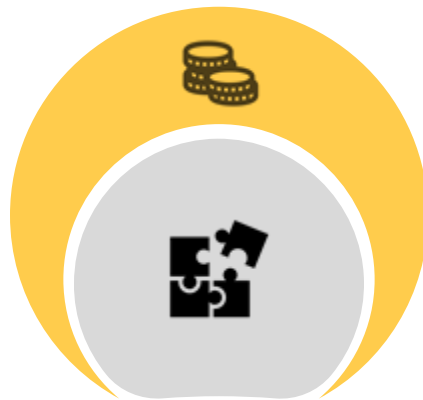

Monetizing an Open Source project

Offer a free, basic version of the software

Monetizing an Open Source project

Donations

Offer a free, basic
version of the software

Monetizing an Open Source project

Donations

Selling merchandise

Offer a free, basic
version of the software

Monetizing an Open Source project

Charge for additional features

Donations

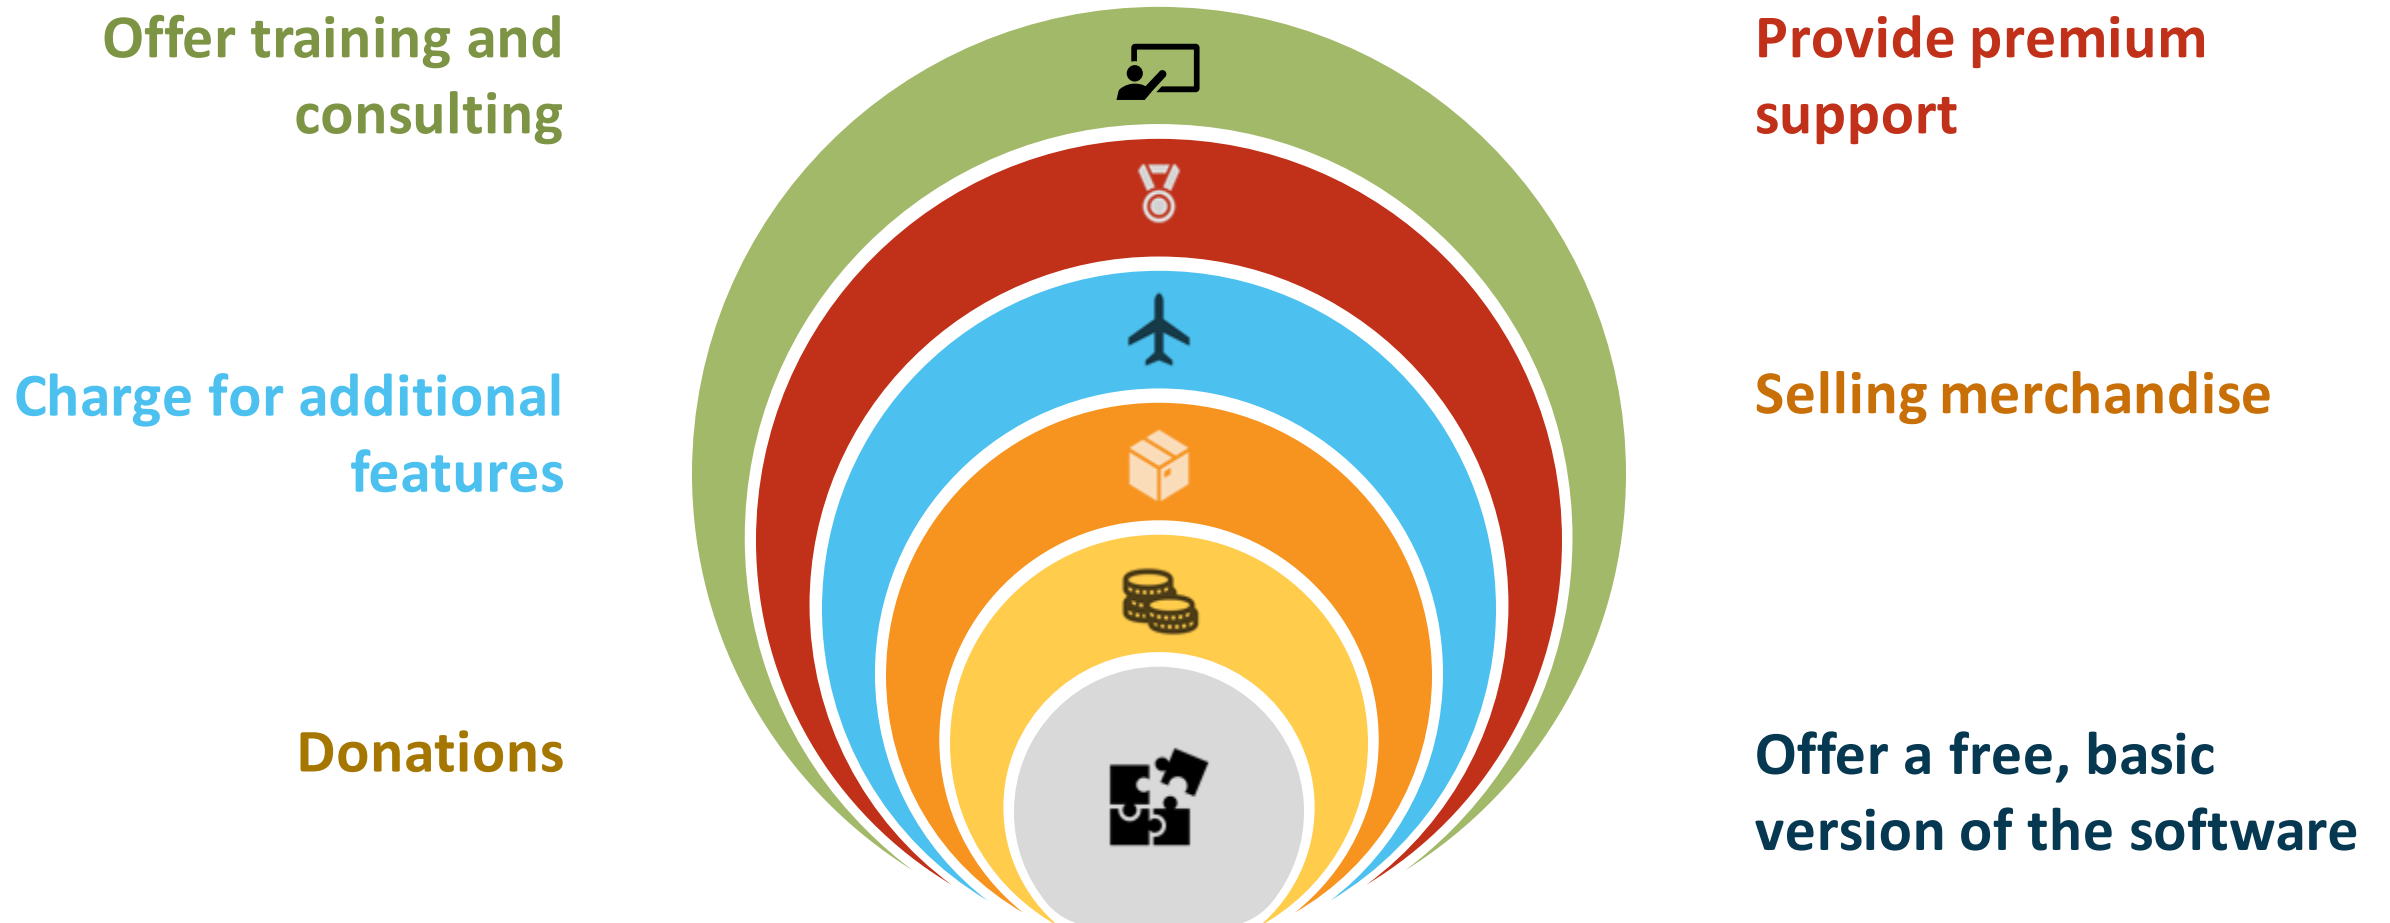

Selling merchandise

Offer a free, basic
version of the software

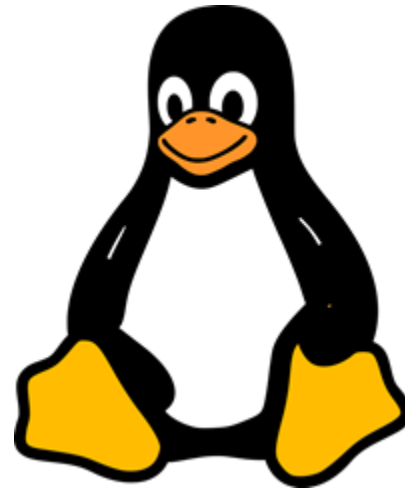

Monetizing an Open Source project

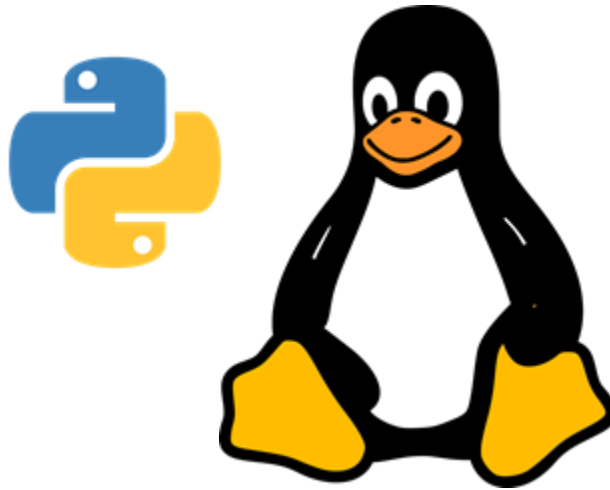

Monetizing an Open Source project

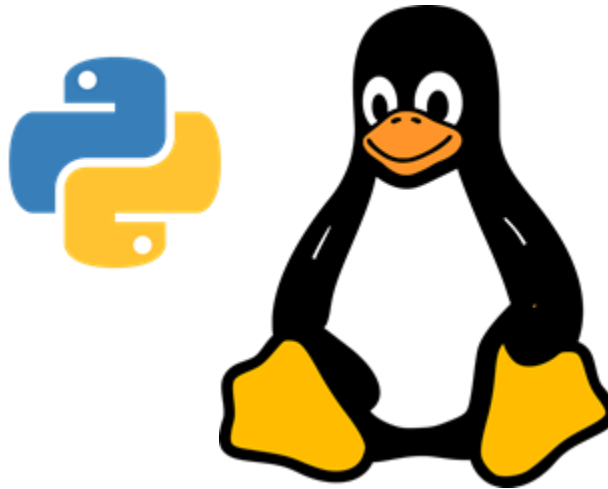

Successful projects

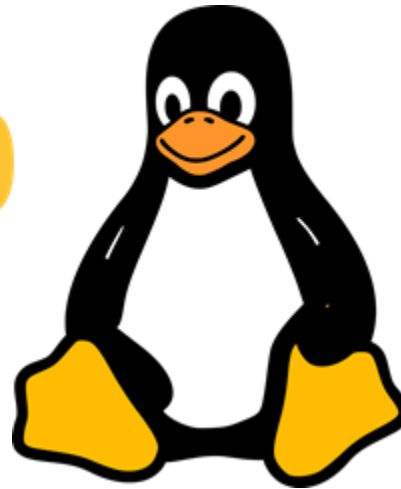

Successful projects

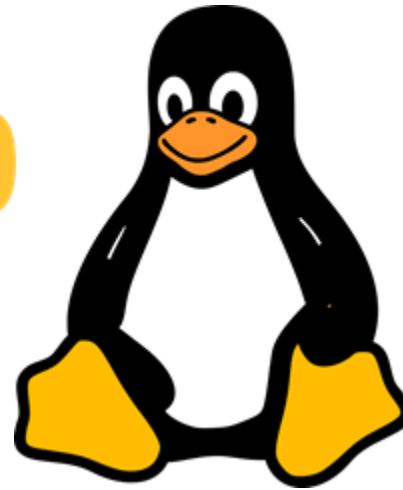

Successful projects

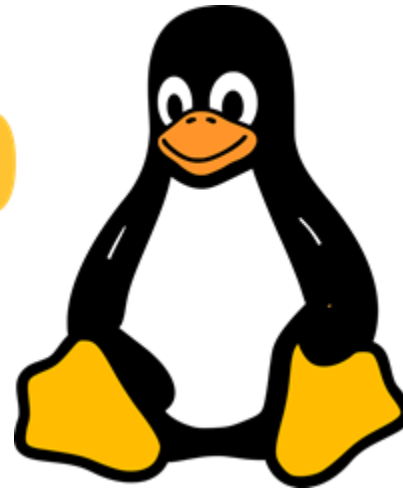

Successful projects

Successful projects

Successful projects

Successful projects

Successful projects

Successful projects

What's next?

How To Get Involved?

How to Upstream an Internal Project?

Legal Implications in Open Source

